LAW BOOKS.

NEW AND VALUABLE WORK

FOR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, And all Connected with the Judicial Administration of the Government.

TO HE TO SEE A TO U TO TO

Of the State of adiana. MONTAINING THE REVISED STATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references . judicial decisions. KDITED BY JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD. Volume 1, Published by

BINGHAM & DOUGHTY, INDIAYAPOLIS. Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the following ecommendation of the work: STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD .- Some months ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for pubishing, in two volumes octavo of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession. The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, as well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to thistime the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knowshow annoying and provoking this is, especially in N IC W DE A C BE I N IC the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs. Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, so that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the eader of the contents of the page. Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in this volume is a good collection of the subjects of all leg-Islation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find wha: was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to see how far recentlegislation may have repealed or mod-fled the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Gavin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three actof 1857. And they have followed the same mode o) co ocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. A still more valuable feature are the copious and accuame includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constistutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appropriate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate note-and references. Messrs. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have well merited his grateful approval.

have cost them much care and labor. By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and In every respect the volume under review is highly reditable to the diligence, accuracy, talents and the taste of its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o 1852, with subsequent amendments and other statutes. Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book. solely because he believes the editors and publishers de-serve high commendation for their performance. He, therefore, deems it but just to them, without being solicited to it by any one, to publish this notice of the book over his own proper name. DAVID McDONALD. Indianapolis, November 1, 1860.

Wood, Dear Sir-In the latter part of the year Prof. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely hereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaint-ances to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but receiving no assurances from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately in the latter part of the year 1857, your restorative was recom-mended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy. As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recom-mended its ur, to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am hap sy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully.

Attorney and Counselor at Law OAK GROVE, S. C., June 24, 1859 SPALDING'S THROAT CONFECTIONS Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir-Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test. During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappear ance, I employed everything I could think of, being a pro-fessional man myself; and, as I thought understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D. Office of the Jeffersonian, Phillippi, Va., Dec. 12, *58.

Dear Six:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his bair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our ad-and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours, &c.. THOMPSON SURGINSON. CHERTER, S. C., 30th July, 1859. Paur. O. J. Woon-Dear Sir: I take pleasure in recommending your Hair Restorative as a most excellent cure for scald head. My son was suffering very much from this disease, and after using one bottle, was made perfectly well. I recommended it to others who had diseases of the head, and in all cases it had the desired effect. You can recommend it without fear as a most certain cure for scaid head. Many others will cortify that this and many other cases was cured from the use of your most valuable Hair Respectfully yours, GEORGE MeSUAIN. The New York Day Book says:

this statement; I give it to you at the request of Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonica. Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show window cards and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOG'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics; and when thus costly are baptized with some trisyllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentlemen comes before the world with-out any "highfalutin" Xilophloforium, or any other astounding or startling catchpeany terms; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative what it expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it acts.
